GENERAL MEETINGS

- 24. An annual general meeting of the company must be held in accordance with the provisions of the Corporations Act.
- 25. Section 250R of the Corporations Act provides that the business of an annual general meeting may include any of the following, even if not referred to in the notice of meeting:
 - (a) the consideration of the annual financial report, Directors' report and auditor's report;
 - (b) the election of the directors;
 - (c) the appointment of the auditor; and
 - (d) determination of auditor's remuneration.
- 26. Any Director may whenever he or she thinks fit convene a general meeting. General meetings may also be convened on such requisition or in default may be convened by such requisitionists as provided by sections 249D or 249E of the Corporations Act.
- 27. Subject to the provisions of the Corporations Act relating to special resolutions and agreements for shorter notice, 21 days' notice at least (exclusive of the day on which the notice is served or taken to be served, and exclusive of the day for which notice is given) must be given to such persons as are entitled to receive such notices from the company.
- 28. A notice of general meeting must:
 - (a) set out the place or places (which may be within or outside Australia), date and time for the meeting (and, if the meeting is to be held in two or more places, the technology that will be used to facilitate this);
 - (b) in the case of special business, state the general nature of the business to be transacted at the meeting;
 - (c) if a special resolution is to be proposed at the meeting, set out an intention to propose the special resolution and state the resolution; and
 - (d) contain a statement that a member has the right to appoint a proxy who must be a member of the company.

PROCEEDINGS AT GENERAL MEETINGS

 - (a) No business may be transacted at any general meeting unless a quorum of members is present at all times during the general meeting.
 - (b) No resolution may be passed at any general meeting unless a quorum of members is present at the time when the resolution is put to the vote of the meeting.
 - (c) Save as herein otherwise provided, two members constitute a quorum, unless there is only 1 member of the company in which case that member constitutes a quorum for any general meeting.
 - (d) If a member attending a general meeting is also a proxy for a member, he or she is to be counted only once in determining whether a quorum is present.
30. If within half an hour from the time appointed for the general meeting (or any longer period of time as the chair may allow) a quorum is not present or ceases to be present at any time during the general meeting, the general meeting, if convened upon the requisition of members, is dissolved; in any other case it stands adjourned to the same day in the next week at the same time and place, or to such other day and at such other time and place as the board may determine. If at the adjourned general meeting a quorum is not present within half an hour from the time appointed for the resumption of the adjourned general meeting or ceases to be present during the general meeting, the general meeting is dissolved.
 - (a) The chair for the time being of the board will serve as chairman at every general meeting, or if he or she is not present within 15 minutes after the time appointed for the holding of the general meeting or is unwilling to act, the Directors present may elect a Director present to chair that general meeting or if no Director is elected or if all the Directors present decline to take the chair for the whole or any part of that general meeting, the members present (whether in person or by proxy) may elect one of their number present (in person) to be chairman of the general meeting. If the members do not so elect a chairman, the general meeting will be adjourned to be resumed on the same day, at the same time and at the same place (or places) in the following week.
 - (b) The chairman of each general meeting has charge of conduct of that meeting, including the procedures to be adopted and the application of those procedures at that meeting.
32. The chairman may, with the consent of members present (in person or by proxy) at any general meeting at which a quorum is present (and must if so directed by a majority of the members present (in person or by proxy) at the general meeting), adjourn the general meeting from time to time and from place to place, but no business may be transacted at any adjourned general meeting other than the business left unfinished at the general meeting from which the adjournment took place. When a general meeting is adjourned for 30 days or more, notice of the adjourned general meeting must be given as in the case of an original general meeting. Save as aforesaid it is not necessary to give any notice of an adjournment or the business to be transacted at an adjourned general meeting.

33. At any general meeting a resolution put to the vote of the general meeting is to be decided on a show of hands unless a poll is (before or on the declaration of the result of the show of hands) demanded:
- (a) by the chairman; or
 - (b) by at least five members present in person or by proxy; or
 - (c) by members with at least 5% of the votes that may be cast on the resolution on a poll.

Unless a poll is so demanded a declaration by the chairman that a resolution has on a show of hands been carried or carried unanimously, or by a particular majority, or lost or not carried by a particular majority, and an entry to that effect in the book containing the minutes of the proceedings of the company is conclusive evidence of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against the resolution. The demand for a poll may be withdrawn by the person or persons who demanded it. A demand for a poll which is withdrawn does not invalidate the result of a show of hands declared before the poll was demanded.

34. If a poll is duly demanded it must be taken in such manner and either at once or after an interval or adjournment or otherwise as the chairman directs, and the result of the poll is the resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded but a poll demanded on the election of a chairman or on a question of adjournment must be taken forthwith.
35. In the case of an equality of votes, whether on a show of hands or on a poll, the chairman of the meeting at which the show of hands takes place or at which the poll is demanded is entitled to a second or casting vote.
36. Each member entitled to vote at a general meeting has 1 vote, whether on a show of hands or on a poll. A member may vote in person or by proxy.
37. A member who is of unsound mind or whose person or estate is liable to be dealt with in any way under the law relating to mental health may vote, whether on a show of hands or on a poll, by his or her committee or trustee or by such other person as properly has the management of his or her estate, and any such committee, trustee or other person may vote by proxy.
38. No member is entitled to vote at any general meeting if his or her annual subscription (if any) is more than two months in arrears at the date of the meeting.
39. (a) Within 1 month after each general meeting, the Directors must record or cause to be recorded in the minute book:
- (i) the proceedings and resolutions of each general meeting;

- (ii) any declarations at each general meeting; and
 - (iii) all resolutions passed by members without a general meeting.
- (b) The chairman, or the chair of the next general meeting, must sign the minutes within 1 month after the general meeting.
 - (c) The minute books must be kept at the registered office.
 - (d) Members may inspect the minute books between the hours of 9:00am and 5:00pm on any Business Day. No amount may be charged for inspection.

PROXY

40. (a) A member who is entitled to attend and to vote at a general meeting may appoint a person as proxy to attend, speak and vote for that member.
- (b) An instrument appointing a proxy must be in writing under the hand of the appointor or of his or her attorney duly authorised in writing.
- (c) A proxy may but need not be a member.
- (d) An instrument appointing a proxy may specify the manner in which the proxy is to vote in respect of a particular resolution and, where an instrument of proxy so provides, the proxy is not entitled to vote on the resolution except as specified in the instrument.
- (e) An instrument appointing a proxy may specify that the proxy is to abstain from voting in respect of a particular resolution and, where an instrument of proxy so provides, the proxy may not vote in respect of the resolution.
- (f) Unless otherwise instructed, a proxy may vote or abstain from voting as he or she thinks fit.
